Dear Maharani Sahiba,

As President of the Lady Irwin College for Women, I feel that the time has come to make an appeal to the women of India. The College is doing excellent work in giving girls who have passed their Matriculation Examination training in Domestic Science - practical as well as theoretical. This includes special health problems, household work and management, book-keeping, hygiene, etc. and to my mind these form a very important part of a girl's education. Girls of the present day are called upon to take a real part in the development of the social services and they are badly needed as Health Visitors and Nurses, professions which have hitherto been loked down upon, but upon which the health and wellbeing of India largely depend.

The College is hampered for want of funds. A scheme for new buildings has been approved and work is to start at once. The estimated cost is a little over two and a half lakhs. After meeting this liability from the Building and Edowment Fund, the amount left will be inadequate for the annual liablility of maintaining the College. I am very anxious to establish a separate Ednowment Fund. Until this this is done there is bound to be considerable anxiety.

As you know, the Lady Irwin College caters for girls from every part of India, and on the roll at present are girls from Bombay, Bengal, Delhi, Indore, Jhind, Madras, the Punjab, Rajaputana, Sind and Travancore.

Of course if you wish, your donation would be earmarked for any portion of the building, room, or otherwise, with the exception of an Assembly Hall which has already been donated. I myself think that the Endowment Fund is our most pressing need, and if you care to give your money to that, it could in the same way have your name connected with it.

Yours sincerely,

(Sd) Doreen Linlithgow.
